EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Warren Woessner on September 25, 2009.

IN THE CLAIMS:

In line 8 of claim 6, insert ---non-mucosal--- between the words "associated" and "upper body".

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The closest prior art is Wilmore (USP No. 5,248,697) who discloses administering glutamine to protect "normal tissue" from radiation-induced oxidative damage and Skubitz et al. (USP No. 5,545,668) who disclose compositions comprising glutamine for treating oropharyngeal mucositis caused by chemotherapy or radiotherapy. Wilmore does not disclose treating breast cancer patients undergoing radiation therapy so as to protect normal breast tissue or associated non-mucosal upper body tissue against damage from radiation and Skubitz et al. do not teach or suggest the treatment of breast cancer patients and do not teach or suggest that oral glutamine supplementation has any beneficial effect on non-mucosal tissue. "Normal tissue" as recited in Wilmore is interpreted to encompass mucosal tissue. Secondary considerations include prior art teachings that there was no difference in Cumulative Mucositis Scores in glutamine-supplemented patients undergoing total body radiation (Ziegler et al., Annal. Int. Med., 1992, vol. 116, page 821). In view of the prior art, it is surprising and unexpected that oral glutamine supplementation to breast cancer patients undergoing radiation therapy results in protection of normal breast tissue and associated non-mucosal upper body tissue against radiation damage (see Example 4 of instant specification at pages 51-52).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
